

CELEBRATION OF THE REVEREND ABSALOM JONES

Come celebrate with us as the Episcopal Diocese of Long Island honors the life, faith, and witness of the Reverend Absalom Jones, the first person of African descent to be ordained in the United States. The Right Rev. Lawrence C. Provenzano, Bishop of Long Island, will preside, and the Rev. Kino Vitet, Rector of the Church of St. Mark, Brooklyn, will preach. Join us as we give thanks for this remarkable figure in the life of our nation and the Church.

WHEN

Saturday February 14, 2026 | 11 AM

WHERE

St. Gabriel's Episcopal Church
196-12 Jamaica Ave, Hollis, Queens, NY 11423

LEARN MORE

For more information, visit
dioceseli.org/absalom26

Presented by the Black Clergy Caucus of the Diocese of Long Island

ABOUT OUR PREACHER

The Reverend Kino Germaine Lockheart Vitet has served as Rector of the Church of St. Mark in Brooklyn, NY, since 2017. Born in Vieux-Fort, Saint Lucia, he holds degrees in civil engineering, city design, economics, and theology from Lehigh University, the London School of Economics, Fordham University, Yale University, Berkeley Divinity School, and Nashotah House. Prior to ordained ministry, he worked in economics, infrastructure, and planning at the Port Authority of NY & NJ. Ordained in 2011, he previously served at the Church of St. Mark and as Priest-in-Charge of St. Joseph's Episcopal Church in Queens Village.

